Hague, November 26, N. S.

THE Prince of Orange having received from Harwich at Helvoetſluys Letters from her Royal Highneſs his Conſort, returned hither laſt Tueſday Night. The Aſſembly of the States of Holland remains fixed to Wedneſday next. The laſt Letters we have received here from the Armies in Italy are of the 12th Inſtant, and adviſe, that both Armies continued in their Poſts, but that the Imperialiſts had received Part of the Succours ordered to them, and were expecting the reſt very ſoon.

Whitehall, November 21.

Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange having embarked at Harwich and put out to Sea on the 6th Inſtant, was obliged, by contrary Wind, to return thither on the 7th, from which Time the Wind continuing contrary, her Royal Highneſs left that Place on the 19th, and this Day paſſed over London Bridge on her Way to Dover, in order to embark there.

Trinity-Houſe, London, Nov. 20, 1734.

The Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants of the Corporation of Trinity Houſe give Notice, that at a General Court held here this Day, they have diſmiſſed Mr. Francis Lilly from being a Pilot of the ſaid Corporation, for misbehaving himſelf in the Conduct of the Italian Merchant, Captain Joſeph Carteret Commander, by running her on the Laſt-Sand on the 8th of February laſt (on her outward-bound Voyage) and for his Ignorance in miſtaking the Sand of the Laſt for that of the Spell.

The Committee for Letting the Cities Lands in the Account of the Chamberlain of the City of London, give Notice, That they intend to Lett by ſeveral Leaſes the following Lots, viz. No 1. Three Meſſuages or Tenements in the Minories, in the ſeveral Tenures or Occupations of Mr. James Manſell, Mr. Stephen Moore, Mr. Joſeph Sowerby, and Mr. William Birkett. No 2. And that the ſaid Committee will ſit in the Council Chamber of the Guildhall, London, on Wedneſday the 27th of November Inſtant, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, to receive Propoſals for the ſame: Of which more particular Information may be had at the Comptroller's Office in the Guildhall aforeſaid.

The Governours of the Free Grammar School of St. Olave's Southwark, give Notice, that they intend to Lett by Leaſe two Meſſuages or Tenements in St. Olave Street, near the End of Bermondſey Street, one in the Poſſeſſion of John Worſley, Shoemaker, and the other adjoining, now empty; and that the Governours will ſit to receive Propoſals (ſealed up) in Writing, on Tueſday the 3d Day of December next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Veſtry Hall near St. Olave's Church: Of which more particular Information may be had of Mr. Henry Spence, Warden, near St. Olave's Church, or Mr. William Eaſt, Attorney, on London Bridge.

Advertiſements.

Dordrecht, October 19, 1734.

THE Honourable the Magiſtrates of Dordrecht, in Holland, give Notice, that in the Month of Auguſt laſt, arrived at one of their Ports, an Engliſh Ship called the Neptune, the Maſter whereof Parker Roe, of Milford, a few Days after abſconded, having taken with him all Books and Papers belonging to the ſaid Ship, ſo that no true Account can be had about her; but it is learned from the Mate and Boatſwain, that ſhe was bound for Cadiz, but inſtead of going there, went to Barcelona, from thence to ſundry other Ports in the Mediterranean and the narrow Seas, and laſtly from Norway. The Magiſtrates having had Information of the Commander's leaving the Ship, and no Perſon appearing to lay Claim to her or her Loading, have ordered the Goods and Ship to be ſecured until Publick Notice was given; whoever therefore have any Concern in either the Ship or Loading, may give in their Claim into the Secretary's Office of the City of Dordrecht, before the 1ſt Day of February next enſuing, New Stile, which Time being elapſed, the ſaid Magiſtrates will proceed to the Diſpoſal of both Ship and Loading. Any Body deſiring to be farther informed, may apply to the Dutch Envoy in Park Place, St. James's.

THERE is to be Sold, purſuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, before Francis Eld, Eſq; one of the Maſters of the ſaid Court, at his Chamber in Symond's Inn in Chancery-Lane, London, The Perpetual Advowſon and Right of Patronage of the Rectory and Pariſh Church of Ruſper, in the County of Suſſex, being a Living of about 120 l. per Annum Value, with a good Glebe, lying about Five Miles from Horſham, a Market Town in Suſſex, and about Eight from Darking and Ryegate, Market Towns in Surry, and the Preſent Incumbent thereon being upwards of 50 Years of Age. Further Particulars may be had at the ſaid Maſter's aforeſaid Chamber.

PUrſuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors of William Lovell, and James Newton, heretofore of London, Mercers and Copartners, (againſt whom a Commiſſion of Bankruptcy iſſued in July 1689) are forthwith to come and prove their Debts before Anthony Allen, Eſq; one of the Maſters of the ſaid Court, at his Houſe in Curſitor's Street, near Chancery Lane, otherwiſe they will loſe the Benefit of the ſaid Decree.
